NY 105-New

In late August, 1973, it had been reported that General VLADIMIR A. KRYUCHKOV, a Deputy to FEDOR MORTIN, Chief of the First Chief Directorate (FCD), KGB Headquarters, Moscow, would officially visit the US as a member of the Soviet delegation to the UNGA and would remain in the US for approximately one month's time, during which he was to inspect the NY and WDC Residencies of the KGB.

In October, 1973, it was learned that General KRYUCHKOV had arrived in the US during the month of September, 1973, as expected, and had remained in this country for approximately 27 days, returning to the Soviet Union via Aeroflot on 10/14/73.

KRYUCHKOV had spent most of his time in NYC but also traveled to WDC, where he remained for approximately one week. KRYUCHKOV had visited also the KGB Residency in San Francisco (SF).

It was indicated that KRYUCHKOV had had individual conferences with each officer of the KGB, regardless of branch, in the NY, WDC and SF Residencies.

It was learned that the above inspection trip of KRYUCHKOV to the US was not specifically made as a result of the arrest of [redacted] of the WDC Residency of KGB on 7/21/73. It was indicated that this trip to the US by KRYUCHKOV was more in the nature of a general educational trip since it was indicated that KRYUCHKOV knows nothing about intelligence work. It was further indicated that undoubtedly MORTIN had authorized KRYUCHKOV to make this trip and, while here in the US, to conduct a general inspection of the Residencies. KRYUCHKOV had spoken to just about every officer in the NY Residency and apparently did likewise in WDC and SF. No information as to any recommendations which had been made by KRYUCHKOV relative to improving the intelligence operations of KGB was available, but it was indicated that KRYUCHKOV was hardly in a position to make constructive recommendations since he had no background in intelligence work.

b7C

~~SECRET~~

NY 105-New

It was learned that KRYUCHKOV occupies his current high and influential position within KGB solely on the basis of being a personal friend and, in fact, a protege of YURIY ANDROPOV, Chief of the KGB in Moscow. ANDROPOV brought KRYUCHKOV to KGB at the time ANDROPOV assumed leadership of the organization and KRYUCHKOV has been described as a Party man who does not know the difference between the CIA and the FBI.

It was indicated that, if FEDOR MORTIN should leave his present position or retire from KGB, KRYUCHKOV should have an excellent chance of being named as MORTIN's replacement.

NOT RECORDED
167 OCT 19 1973

58 OCT 25 1974

105-250595

NY 105-68118

It has been learned that General [] who recently returned to New York City following home leave, is in an extremely bad frame of mind as a result of unpleasant conversations he had while in Moscow with both YURIY ANDROPOV, Chief of KGB, and FEDOR MORTIN, Chief of the First Chief Directorate, relative to the arrest in Queens, New York, on 7/21/73 of []

b6
b7C

[] has directed all New York Residency branch chiefs to place a moratorium on any intelligence meets or operations which might conceivably result in compromise by the FBI and unfavorable publicity in the U.S. press. [] has issued the same general instructions to the Washington, D.C. KGB Residency. This moratorium will be in effect for an indefinite period of time and the only exceptions will be those operations he deems absolutely essential.

b7C

It has been indicated further that [] will adhere to this policy at least until the New York and Washington Residencies are inspected by General VLADIMIR KRYUSHKOV. KRYUSHKOV has previously been identified as a deputy to FEDOR MORTIN and the heir-apparent to MORTIN as head of the First Chief Directorate. General KRYUSHKOV will come to the U.S. during September, 1973, as an UNGA delegate and remain there approximately one month during which time he will inspect both the New York and Washington Residencies. Since the 28th UNGA is scheduled to begin on 9/18/73, it is indicated that KRYUSHKOV will arrive in the U.S. sometime around that date.

It is indicated that KRYUSHKOV will visit the U.S. using his true identity as this apparently is KRYUSHKOV's first visit to this country.

It has been further learned that ANDROPOV has ordered those responsible for the [] arrest to be suitably censured. As a result, [] the Washington, D.C. [] and [] of "Line KR" within the New York KGB Residency, will be punished. [] will not return to the New York Residency, but will be given a position within the Second Chief Directorate in Moscow. It is indicated that [] was basically responsible for the security of the [] operation in Queens, New York, and he therefore must bear the responsibility for its lack of success. It was further indicated that [] will be the KGB officer who will receive the severest censure.

b7C

NY 105-68118

It has further been learned that [redacted] of the New York KGB Residency at the time of the [redacted] arrest, will not be found culpable since he had no direct involvement in the [redacted] matter in Queens, New York. Relative to the fate of [redacted] officer who accompanied [redacted] to the meet area on 7/21/73, Moscow has decided to recall him permanently to the Soviet Union not because of the [redacted] incident, but because his association with a "Line KR" agent [redacted] is apparently known to the FBI.

b7C

It was further noted that the "K" Directorate officials who supervised the [redacted] matter since its inception will also receive some type of official censure.

b7C

It is indicated that [redacted] will be extremely conservative toward future KGB operations in both Washington and New York since it is apparent that ANDROPOV will hold him personally responsible if any unfavorable publicity occurs as a result of a compromise of any such activity. All branch chiefs have been directed by [redacted] to direct their KGB officers to seek and locate new contacts and sources while this moratorium is in effect. This will be the main thrust of both the New York and Washington, D.C. KGB Residencies for some period of time.

b7C

Relative to the above, General [redacted] has been reading numerous newspapers and periodicals apparently in an effort to locate, as he has done in the past, individuals who might be approached by officer personnel based on circumstances set forth in specific articles within the newspapers and/or periodicals.

VLADIMIR

It has been previously reported that [redacted] during last August, 1973, indicated that as an aftermath of the [redacted] incident, General VLADIMIR KRYUSHKOV (KRYUCHKOV) was to visit the U.S. in the near future on an inspection tour. KRYUSHKOV, a Deputy to FEDOR MORTIN, Head of the First Chief Directorate, KGB Headquarters, Moscow, would officially visit the U.S. as an UNGA delegate and remain in the U.S. for approximately one month during which time he was to inspect the New York and Washington KGB Residencies.

b7C

It has now been learned that KRYUSHKOV had arrived in the U.S. as expected and remained in this country for approximately 27 days, returning to the Soviet Union via Aeroflot on 10/14/73. It is indicated that KRYUSHKOV spent the majority of his stay in New York City, but he had travelled to WDC, where he remained for approximately one week and also had visited the KGB Residency in San Francisco.

No information was currently available as to the scope of KRYUSHKOV's inspection of the New York KGB Residency; however, it was indicated that KRYUSHKOV had had conferences with each officer, regardless of branch, in the New York, WDC and San Francisco KGB Residencies.

Relative to the above, [redacted]

b6

Concerning [redacted] it is indicated that [redacted] is in a rather bad mood possibly because of the criticism which he received from YURIY ANDROPOV, KGB Chief, relative to the [redacted] incident.

TRAUN, Cheltenham, Pennsylvania telephone 215-ES 9-0150, IS-R", which reflected that on 10/12/73 [] contacted the long-distance operator and obtained the telephone number of VALENTINA TRAUN, telephone number 215-ES 9-0150.

b7C

Enclosed for the Bureau is a three by five card reflecting contemplated travel by captioned individuals to Philadelphia on 10/8/73.

Sources of the Philadelphia Office furnish no information relative to the travel of captioned subjects to Philadelphia on 10/8 or 10/9/73.

Re WFO letter 10/25/73 reflected that [] contacted the long-distance operator and obtained the telephone number of V. TRAUN, Cheltenham, Pa., telephone 215-ES 9-0150. The purpose of learning TRAUN's telephone number is unknown to the source.

b7C

For the information of WFO, this individual is VALENTINA TRAUN, 128 Yew Road, Cheltenham, Pa. Also for information, [] a Soviet national employed by [] while he was in the country visited VALENTINA TRAUN on October 1 and 2, 1970.

b7C

Also concerning VALENTINA TRAUN, information regarding her husband AUGUST MARTIN TRAUN, appeared in the "Philadelphia Inquirer", a daily newspaper, dated 11/14/52, in an article entitled, "Red Police Link Spices Trial Here." This concerned a story told by AUGUST TRAUN, a taproom owner at 2301 Germantown Avenue, during a trial which accused police officers [] and [] of blackmail, extortion, and conspiracy against TRAUN.

b7C

The article reported that TRAUN testified he paid $75.00 to [] to "fix" the police raiders and $300.00 to [] to "fix" it so the Liquor Control Board would not lift his license. He said that when [] returned for another $300.00 payment, he transcribed the conversation with a hidden tape recording machine.

b7C

According to the article, it was brought out in the trial, TRAUN "played ball" with the NKVD in Lithuania, so that he and his wife could get to Moscow and then to America. TRAUN claimed when he got to Moscow, he told his story to the American Consul. He also claimed he told his complete story to the FBI in Washington and Philadelphia, when he returned to the country.

b7C

VALENTINA TRAUN, when interviewed by Bureau agents on December 15, 1954, claimed she was not aware of the arrangements her husband had made with the NKVD in order to obtain an exit visa for her until they had reached Moscow and he furnished the information to the American officials at the American Embassy in Moscow.

Mrs. TRAUN then stated she had a [] who was employed by the Lithuanian Government in the Passport Office prior to the Soviet occupation of Lithuania in 1940. When the Soviet forces occupied Kaunas, Lithuania, they retained [] in her position. That office was under the supervision of the NKVD and she stated it was her opinion that [] was forced to remain in her position in order to exist under the Soviet regime. She said that prior to the German occupation of Lithuania in 1941, the Russians transferred [] to the interior of Russia along with other employees of that office. She said she did not believe that [] was ever

b7C

PH 105-

a member of the NKVD or engaged in any activities in their behalf. Mrs. TRAUN also said that she was never approached by the NKVD to do any work for them. Mrs. TRAUN said that (as of December 15, 1954) she had had no contact with her mother or sister in Lithuania since the outbreak of the Korean War and was not aware of their present address; however, she believed that they both were residing at Kaunas.

It is brought out for information that AUGUST MARTIN TRAUN, mentioned above, has been described in the past as an opportunist and a publicity seeker and it was not believed desirable to interview him after the conclusion of his trial in 1954. During the course of his trial efforts were made to subpoena FBI records to substantiate TRAUN's remarks that he had furnished the Bureau all information regarding the contacts with the NKVD in Russia.

This office will be alert through established sources to determine whether the contact between VALENTINA TRAUN and [] is social or whether she is contemplating travel to the Soviet Union.

b7C

LEAD

PHILADELPHIA:

AT PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Through established sources, will attempt to determine the reason for [] contact with VALENTINA TRAUN; it could be a social contact or possibly TRAUN is contemplating travel to the Soviet Union.
